A third party was born at Cincinnati, last Wednesday, and started out on its political career under the name and style of "The Peoples Party of the United States of America." It is the offspring of a body of men calling themselves, "The National Union Conference," and was made up of members of the Farmers' Alliance, the Citizens Alliance, the Peoples' party, the Knights of Labor, the National Industrial Alliance, the Anti-monopoly party and the Single Tax party. These seven parties contracted into one constitute the third party. The Greenback party and Prohibition party knocked also for admittance into the fold but were practically excluded. The conference which originated the third party movement, though calling itself national, will hardly be so considered, and it is pleasant to note, that the Southern members of the Farmers' Alliance refuse to take stock in the so-called third party. The conference was dominated by Kansas men who furnished nearly one-fourth of the delegates, recognized as entitled to seats in the body. There was but 26 delegates in the conference from the State of Texas, where the Alliance was born, and the most of the other Southern States were not represented in the body at all. Southern agriculturists can not accept as leaders the rabid Republicans of Kansas and without them it is not likely that this third party movement will amount to much.

The President has commuted the sentences of George S. Key, Henry Jones and Edward Smith, the Navassa rioters, convicted of murder in the circuit court of the United States, for the District of Maryland, and sentenced to be hanged, to imprisonment for life at hard labor in the penitentiary.

The Confederate Veterans' Association, has designated Thursday, June 18th, as the day for every county and town in the South to take steps to raise funds to erect a monument to the memory of Jefferson Davis.

The Southern Farmers' Alliance, the organ of the Georgia Alliance men, favors Hon. C. Crisp, of that State, for the Speakership of the next House of Representatives.

Nothing new regarding the debt settlement question has developed in Richmond within the last few days. Those in position to know say that there is no question that there will be a conference between the Olcott committee and the Virginia Debt commission, though the date of the conference has not yet been decided upon.

The Davis Shoe Company, which operates a big shop at the Virginia Penitentiary, made an assignment Tuesday, of all their property in Virginia. The liabilities are $125,000. The creditors are to share pro rata. The concern has in its employ 550 men and 80 women, all convicts hired from the State.

Governor McKinney has accepted an invitation to attend the convention to be held at Pulaski city, July 15, to secure a proper exhibit of Virginia's products at the Chicago Exposition.

Unveiling of the "Stonewall" Statue.
Rev. Dr. G. R. Strickley, an eminent Presbyterian minister, of Atlanta, Ga., has been selected as the orator at the unveiling of the Stonewall Jackson statue, in Lexington, on the 21st of July. Dr. Strickley is a native of Virginia, served during the war in the Stonewall Brigade, and after the war graduated with distinction at Washington and Lee University. Mrs. Margaret J. Preston has been requested to write a poem to be read at the unveiling. The occasion promises to be second only in interest to the unveiling of the Lee monument, which took place last May, in Richmond. The old Stonewall Brigade will take part in the exercises, in addition to which there will be present a large number of Confederate camps and associations from Virginia, and other points. Several of the uniformed regiments of Virginia troops will participate, and a great outpouring of the people of the Valley of Virginia is anticipated. The Jackson memorial committee has selected Gen. Wade Hampton to preside at the unveiling ceremonies, and General James A. Walker, the last surviving commander of the Stonewall Brigade, to act as chief marshal of the parade.

Farmers' Alliance Agents in Council.
RICHMOND, Va., May 19.—A conference of the business agents of the Farmers' Alliance of the State was held here to-day. The body is composed of eighty or ninety agents, representing probably nearly all of the counties of the State. It was called by George Chrisman, chairman of the State executive committee, to consider only matters of business of interest to the order. Major Page, of Prince George county, a member of the State committee and one of the leading members of the order in the State, was also present. When asked what he thought of the National Union Conference, now in session at Cincinnati, Major Page said that the Farmers' Alliance had nothing to do with that organization. The Cincinnati conference, he said, was called by Ralph Beaumont, who was some time ago prominently connected with national labor organizations. The effort to get up a third party movement Major Page did not think would meet with any encouragement among the conservative elements West and North. In Virginia and the other Southern States it would not have any friends. There are conservative men at the head of the organization in this State.

VIRGINIA NEWS.
The recent rains have greatly improved the crops throughout the State.

Hon. Charles T. O'Ferrall will deliver the address on Confederate Memorial Day at Winchester, June 6.

Five hundred Union veterans from Washington will visit Fredericksburg, May 30—National Decoration Day.

The Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans will meet in Fredericksburg, June 10. The Confederate monument is to be unveiled there that day.

Hon. W. C. P. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, has accepted an invitation to deliver the annual address before the Virginia State Bar Association, on July 28, at the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs.

It is believed that in the county elections, which take place in this State this month, the Democrats will carry many counties in which the Republicans have heretofore been in the ascendancy. Among these will probably be several of those in the Black belt.

RICHMOND, Va., May 18.—The contract has been awarded and the work is to begin at once on the monument here to Lieut. Gen. A. P. Hill, a distinguished corps Confederate commander of Lee's army, who fell in the lines around Petersburg. The pedestal is to be of granite, 27 feet high, upon which a large statue of the gallant officer will rise.

The Virginia Colored Baptist Convention, at Charlottesville, closed Saturday. The report of the treasurer for the past year showed that $93,863 had been collected for home missions, $52,977 for foreign missions, $16,677 for educational purposes and $32,590 for the seminary at Lynchburg. The next convention will be held in Washington city.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.
Ayer's Sarsaparilla
Is an effective remedy, as numerous testimonials conclusively prove. "For two years I was a constant sufferer from dyspepsia and liver complaint. I doctored a long time and the medicines prescribed in nearly every case, only aggravated the disease. An apothecary advised me to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I did so, and was cured at a cost of $5. Since that time it has been my family medicine, and sickness has become a stranger to our household. I believe it to be the best medicine on earth."—P. F. McNulty, Hackman, 20 Summer St., Lowell, Mass.

FOR DEBILITY,
Ayer's Sarsaparilla
Is a certain cure, when the complaint originates in impoverished blood. "I was a great sufferer from a low condition of the blood and general debility, becoming finally so reduced that I was unfit for work. Nothing that I did for the complaint helped me so much as Ayer's Sarsaparilla, a few bottles of which restored me to health and strength. I take every opportunity to recommend this medicine in similar cases."—C. Evick, 14 E. Main St., Chillicothe, Ohio.

FOR ERUPTIONS
And all disorders originating in impurity of the blood, such as boils, carbuncles, pimples, blotches, salt-rheum, scald-head, scrofulous sores, and the like, take only

PUBLIC AUCTION OF VALUABLE
REAL ESTATE IN ARLING-WOOD.
By virtue of a decree of the circuit court for the county of Accomac, entered on the 14th day of April, 1891, in the suit in chancery pending in said court, between John R. Kellam's executors, &c., plaintiffs, and Bettie W. Kellam and others, defendants, I will on Saturday, 6th day of June, 1891, about 3 o'clock, p. m., at Louestville, in front of E. B. Swan-ger & Co's store, sell at public auction to the highest bidder, the real estate mentioned and described in the decree in said cause, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the debts of John R. Kellam, deceased, the same to be sold in the following order, to wit:
1st. The farm No. 1 situated on the west side of Wachapreague creek one mile from Louestville, in said county, containing (80) sixty acres, more or less, of high, arable land; (20) twenty acres, more or less, of marsh and fine pasture; (10) ten acres, more or less, of No. 1 oyster planting ground, bounded on the east by a creek and a tributary of Wachapreague, south and west by the lands of A. G. Finney, formerly the Upshur land, with a road and ditch between them as a line, north by farm No. 2, from which it is separated by a branch of said creek and a ditch as a line. This farm is beautifully situated upon a good bay, which affords delightful sailing, and makes a pleasant home, (adapted to trucks).
2nd. The farm No. 2 adjoining No.
1, containing (120) one hundred and twenty acres, more or less, of which most of it is high land, bounded on the south by farm No. 1, and the lands of L. K. LeCato's heirs, with road and ditch separating them from the lands of A. G. Finney, formerly the Upshur land, north by a branch stream separating it from John L. Ward's and John R. Kellam's heirs land, east by the Great Bridge stream, a tributary of Wachapreague. This farm contains as fine trucking soil as any on the Eastern Shore.
3rd. The undivided one-half interest in the Kellam grist mill and mill lot or acre, situated on the west side of the homestead farm.
4th. The lot adjoining the lot of Thos. C. Kellam, containing (10) ten acres, more or less, bounded on the north by the county road and the lot of Thos. C. Kellam, east by road leading from county road to creek landing, south and west by the Great Bridge stream, a tributary of Wachapreague.
5th. The farm in Custis Neck where Geo. Crockett now resides, containing (100) one hundred acres, more or less, bounded on the north by the lands of Thos. F. Floyd, east by a tributary or channel of Metomkin creek, south by the lands of John R. Kellam's heirs, west by the lands of Wm. H.
B. Custis's heirs, but this farm is to be sold subject to the right of Bettie W.
Kellam, widow of John R. Kellam, to the one-third of the rents, issues and profits arising therefrom during her life or widowhood.
